5. Reports
   5.1. President’s report

The Sturt campus is a major concern for me. As outlined in my last SC report, there are a number of issues confronting students and staff at Sturt. During May, FUSA devoted more time and energy than the usual at Sturt campus. The wonderful FUSA Multi-cultural Festival was an outstanding success. I want to personally thank and congratulate Siti Maesaroh for the enormous job she did in coordinating the organising and running of the festival.

Although the number of Sturt students who attended the FUSA forum at Sturt was slightly disappointing, the forum was a success in terms of a number of important discussions took place with the 14 students who attended at various times over the hour. The process of building the forum also allowed important interaction and discussions to take place between SC members and Sturt students during the month of May. These discussions were important in listening to some of the issues Sturt students had in regards to a range of issues. I want to thank all SC members that assisted in this process, in particular Catherine Wagg, Caleb Pattinson and Grace Hill. It was also great to see Brodie May start his public transport survey at Sturt campus an event covered by the local Messenger newspaper.

As part of the engagement with Sturt students and to allow me to have some guidance before the student forum a short survey was conducted online, 62 students completed the survey. The results are attached to this report. In terms of FUSA the survey shows we have a bit of work to continue to try and relate to Flinders students away from Bedford campus, although almost 68 per cent were aware of the FUSA room, but surprising only 47 per cent were aware of student assist.

The survey confirms Student Council concerns in regards to welfare issues confronting Flinders students are correct. A number of issues impact Flinders students, including poverty (20 per cent), Housing/accommodation (27 per cent), Transportation (37 per cent). 67 per cent stated the work-study balance impacted on them, again confirming the importance of FUSA to campaign for more and better government student allowance measures.

In a fitting conclusion to the increased engagement from FUSA during May, we saw the successful relaunch of the Nursing and Midwifery Students Association. Well Done to Caleb Pattinson for his continued hard work in trying to get school associations off the ground, as the survey showed, students want stronger representation at a school and faculty level.

In meetings with the senior management of the University in regards to Sturt campus, the administration stated the Sturt campus was an important part of Flinders and that major capital works were in the planning process for Sturt. It was also stated Decafe was going to undergo a major refurbishment in the next 12 months and they were looking at a number of ways to improve the student experience at Sturt.

In my last report I wrote... In recent weeks it has been bought to my attention the issue of a lack of access to basic hygiene or pharmacy related products. This includes feminine hygiene products; basic pain relief; first aid items; hand moisturiser (important to nursing, paramedic and other students in labs constantly washing their hands); lip balm etc.... Both students and staff are rightly annoyed by the situation. Academic staff, professional staff as well as Cafe staff keep personal stashes of tampons, pads Panadol and other items for distressed students free of charge.

Flinders One has agreed to expand its range to include women’s sanitary products, hand cream and lip balm, as well as ensure Panadol, hand sanitiser, Band aids and throat Lozenges are well stocked and clearly on display. Thank you to everyone, in particular to Sue Myatt for having this win for Sturt students. Management has assured me the prices will NOT be more than main campus.

Nepal Earthquake impact on Flinders community.

Our university has 68 students from Nepal. Some have been greatly impacted by the devastating earthquake, with home communities suffering much death and destruction. The Flinders community has responded in a range of ways. The solidarity and support was on full display at the FUSA multicultural festival. Over $10 000 have been raised from Flinders students and staff. I have been in close contact with a number of Nepali students and been in communication with the university in regards to a number of issues including fee waivers.

Clubs and Societies

The first Clubs and Societies Subcommittee meeting was held on the 22nd of May. We had more than 10 attendees from at least 7 different clubs. Coming out of the meeting we have lots of feedback from clubs regarding which aspects of club maintenance and their relationship with FUSA are most challenging, and where they feel improvements could be made. The area most discussed was funding, which almost all club representatives had previously had difficulty accessing or understanding. Adam and I will have plenty to talk about in the near future, and more meetings will be held next semester.

NUS Quality Survey

Since last meeting I have been able to get most of my classmates to fill in NUS Quality surveys, which I have returned to the Education Officer and Student President. The time it takes students to fill in the survey has been an excellent opportunity to talk to them about what FUSA is, what NUS is, and why student unionism is so important. Most students who were aware of NUS have found out about the organization last year during the very successful Abbott and Pyne: Hands off our education” campaign. People who had heard of NUS were more receptive to requests to fill out the survey than those who had not.

Multicultural Festival

I was at the FUSA stall on the Wednesday and Friday of the Multicultural Festival. The festival was wonderful, and another BIG thank you to International Students Officer Siti Maesaroh! Sturt students I spoke to were pleased to have FUSA activity on their campus, and I feel we should organize more for the students of Sturt. However, I disagree with the University’s decision to disallow the festival from being held on the main campus. We used the opportunity of the FUSA table at the festival to try and promote the FUSA forum, and the Nursing and Midwifery Students Association. In the week proceeding the festival, I made announcements in my classes to let people know about the event. Thanks to the other council members who helped out when I did – Caleb, Brodie, Catherine, and James.

Student Welfare and the Budget

The situation with student welfare is just as dire as ever. This month I have been approached by three students who have either been cut off from their Centrelink allowances, or are on the verge of being unable to survive due to the appallingly small amount they receive each fortnight. One student has dropped out. I have been in contact with all of them, encouraging them to use the Student Assist services and also to contact Welfare Rights. These are just three students of many, and the situation will only get worse if the measures announced recently in the budget are passed. The Liberals have revealed their intention to try to force through fee deregulation again. The rest of the budget is no better. It’s being presented as a backdown from last year’s disaster budget, and in some ways it is. We can thank the campaign of protest in opposition to the Liberals for this. Nonetheless, the budget is still all about fucking over students, workers, and the poor, to further line the pockets of the rich.

$1.7b will be spent to curb “welfare fraud”, otherwise known as young people and pensioners making errors when they’re made to fill in dozens of pages of complicated forms. Young unemployed people will be forced to wait a month before receiving any assistance. Will this be on top of the months we already have to wait for Centrelink to even begin to process our claims? Meanwhile another $150m will be spent on war propaganda, $400m on a new militarized border force to increase the number of prisoners in Australia’s concentration camps, and $300m on spy projects. There’s so much money which could be spent on students, but instead it’s spent on useless garbage. Student activists should be continuing to throw themselves in to the fight against the government.

Nursing and Midwifery Students Association Launch

I went down to Sturt Campus last week to help the Education Officer launch the Nursing and Midwifery Students Association. We held a BBQ outside the FUSA Sturt room and signed people up to both FUSA and the new Nursing and Midwifery Students Association. The AGM got quorum and was quite successful. Many students who could not attend due to class still signed up, and many students who were not in the relevant courses still signed up to FUSA and stuck around to hear more about what we do. A very successful day! Thanks to the Education Officer, Student President, and Environment Officer.

Combatting racism:

Rally against the forced closure of Aboriginal communities
On May 1st I attended the rally against the forced closure of Aboriginal communities. The racist policy of community closure is not limited to WA. The SA government is also withholding crucial funding from the APY Lands, exacerbating already existing problems in these communities caused by lack of funding. Every self-respecting anti-racist needs to be supporting this campaign. I am pleased to report that over 1000 people took to the streets for this rally, including lots of Flinders University Students.

Protest to rescue Rohingya refugees:

This month I have helped with two protests demanding the immediate rescue and resettlement of the Rohingya refugees. Unfortunately, governments around the world have taken the lead of Australia – the norm now seems to be allowing refugees to die at sea, towing back their boats, or locking them up if they succeed in landing. Australia should rescue and resettle these refugees. If they were whites on a cruise ship who needed rescuing, Abbott and Shorten would be tripping over themselves to prove who wanted to rescue them most. But as they’re poor and Muslim, they’re instead busy fighting over who most wants to refuse these people entry to Australia or to lock them up in a concentration camp. Both protests I’ve taken part in have been very successful, and well attended by Flinders Students.

IDAHOT and Irish referendum!

During the month I helped organize and attended a student speakout in the city for International day against Homophobia and Transphobia. The event was very successful, with lots of young people stopping to sign petitions for marriage equality and to talk about the history of IDAHOT and the campaign for marriage equality in Australia. Shortly after this, the Irish referendum on marriage equality proved a resounding success, with around 2/3 of voters voting to have equal rights. I helped organize petitions and other materials to promote a popular vote on the issue in Australia, and petitioned students on the Flinders campus and in the city around the issue. Everyone has been very receptive – most students and indeed most Australians support equal rights.

5.3. Education Officer’s report

School Associations Project

Flinders Education Student Association (FESA): This association only born months ago continues to go from strength to strength. A successful, initial social event was held on the 23rd of May with the association selling almost 700 pub crawl shirts. Myself and Jonathon Louth will be pursing official endorsement from the Dean of Education in a meeting being on Monday 1st of June so that the association can become a little more structured and well known by the academics.

Flinders Law Student Association (FLSA): I am still hoping to convince the FLSA to affiliate with FUSA ASAP and officially endorse the school association project.
Flinders Business School Student Association (FBSSA): I sent a few pieces of correspondence to the FBSSA who responded critically, yet mostly positively. If anybody wishes to discuss this further please get into contact with me over the next month.

Association for the Students of International Studies (ASIS): I am awaiting a meeting with the Dean of the School to seek official endorsement for this association.

Flinders Psychology Student Association (FPSA): I met with the President of FPSA, Marina William, to discuss the agenda I am moving forward in 2015; creating and strengthening school-based associations. Their association is very sound however like many groups on campus, FPSA struggle to get students eager and excited to engage and become more active in student representation.

Flinders Chemical and Physical Sciences (Thinking CaPS): I had a meeting with Michael Wilson, President of the Thinking CaPS Club, they are positive towards being involved in the project and I will look towards working closer with the club when the appropriate time suits.

Flinders University Nursing and Midwifery Student Association (FUNMSA): With the help of the resources from FUSA, we successfully relaunched the FUNMSA on Wednesday 27th of May. Combining the FUSA says Relax event along with a BBQ and some coffee vouchers we got 21 students along to the successful AGM held. The BBQ was enjoyed by the Paramedic students. I particularly thank Jonathon and Adam for the endless hours put into the event. I also extend gratitude to James, Grace and Brodie who all made the effort to attend the event, sign up FUSA members and help serve the BBQ.

Flinders Computer Science, Engineering and Mathematics Student Association (CSEMSA): The CSEMSA launched on the 27th of May, after just making quorum at the IGM there was a very successful members BBQ that followed. I am grateful for the time Sue Myatt took out to attend the BBQ to speak to the members about the benefits of Student Assist.

Flinders Medical Student Society (FMSS): I am still endeavouring to create a strong stream of communication between FUSA and FMSS. I am hoping to have a meeting with the Senior-Vice President around the benefits and resources FUSA has to offer.

School of Humanities and Creative Arts Student Association (FUHCASA): We are looking to establish this association in Semester 2 with ‘Super Tuesday’, preliminary discussions will be occurring with current social groups associated with the school.

School of Social and Policy Studies Student Association (SPS-SA): We are looking to establish this association in Semester 2 with ‘Super Tuesday’, preliminary discussions will be occurring with current social groups associated with the school.

School of Biological Sciences Student Association (BioSA): We are looking to establish this association in Semester 2 with ‘Super Tuesday’, preliminary discussions will be occurring with current social groups associated with the school.
School of the Environment Student Association (ESAFU): We are looking to establish this association in Semester 2 with ‘Super Tuesday’, preliminary discussions will be occurring with current social groups associated with the school.

School of Health Sciences Student Association (HSSA): We are looking to establish this association in Semester 2 with ‘Super Tuesday’, preliminary discussions will be occurring with current social groups associated with the school.

Dean Meetings: Jonathon and I are still in the process of meeting up with the Deans of all the Schools at Flinders University. The Dean for the School of Humanities and Creative Arts was very supportive for the project to go ahead. At the time of the SC meeting I would have also met with the Dean of Education.

Super Tuesday: There is a current proposition for a ‘Super Tuesday’ to establish the remaining 5 associations at Flinders University. Please look at the matters for noting for further information.

NUS Quality Survey

The NUS Quality Survey is finishing up soon. I thank all council members who have contributed to the collection of responses. I particularly am aware that James and Ann have collected numerous single-handedly.

Without being aware of the number of responses council have collected when writing this report – Flinders is tracking at a little over 100 responses so far. General council members Catherine and Kevin have already assisted me in entering the data from physical survey responses.

Multi-cultural Festival

I congratulate Siti on a tremendously successful event held over 3 days. I was unable to attend as much as I would have liked, however the time I did spend down at Sturt was joyous and enjoyable, reflective on the type of event the hard working people behind the scenes created. I used the time down at Sturt to talk to some Nursing and Midwifery students about the impending AGM (which was a week or two after this event).

Sturt Forum

I attended the Sturt Forum held by James. I congratulate him on a sound event, limited success was achieved however as always we can improve! I know James would have had countless conversations both immediately prior to the event as well as across the multi-cultural festival. There was some constructive feedback received and I believe it would be beneficial to continuing a constant stream of momentum for Sturt by hosting another event shortly. There were some concerning outcomes from the result of the Sturt survey – notably the students suffering from poverty and lacking student representation. James has extensive feedback on the Sturt survey if anybody wishes to discuss this further.
Rebranding Group

I attended the first RB meeting chaired by FUSA Media Officer, Steph Walker. I believe the meetings serve an invaluable service – as a SC we need to either agree on the proposed rebranding at the conclusion of the project or decide to same with the same (current) brand. Given the strenuous time frame placed on the project, it is important to include SC in as many discussions as possible. I will be attending as many of these as I can.

Education Collective

I have been trying to post more regularly on the social-media page for the Education Collective. In the future I think an interactive blog would be essential to engaging with current Education Collective members. Growing the Education Collective is an arduous task and one that will take many years to achieve comprehensive growth. I hope SC stands with me on the project and will do their best to help me in this venture.

5.4. Environment Officer’s report

Parking and public transport on campus
Public transport options for students continue to be a major issue for students at Flinders. The recent survey found that 37% of Flinders students find transportation to be a pressure impacting on their study. I’ve started my own specifically transport related survey, which was launched at the Sturt campus. The preliminary results are stark to say the least. Amongst the mostly nursing students, the majority take cars to university, citing that getting to classes on time using public transport is unfeasible. Despite this though, almost every student I spoke to, irrespective of whether or not they park on campus, knew that it’s difficult to impossible to park, even at a less busy time of year.

I was contacted by the Mitcham and Hills Messenger about the issues of parking and the total lack of plans to either extend a train line to the campus, or to expand the amount of parking available, and met with a reporter to go over the issue. The cancelled plans to extend the rail line to Flinders seem to be ruffling the feathers of the Mitcham city council due to students parking in the suburbs, either to avoid the cost of parking or because they cannot find a park. A journalist from the Messenger met with myself and James to see the state of the parking and interview us.

Joint forum with Indigenous officer
I’ve been working closely with Latoya and we’re in the advanced stages in organising a major forum at the Bedford park campus in early semester 2. This forum will focus on the environmentally destructive mining industry in Australia.

I’ve been in contact with Friends of the Earth anti-nuclear campaign which is a leading organisation in campaigning against nuclear energy.
I'm also in discussion with a Flinders medical student who is concerned by the renewed push for nuclear by the federal and state governments.

I've also been in contact with the fossil fuel divestment campaign on campus.

First Nations communities are often those impacted the most by the mining industry. I saw this as a good chance to organise an event with the Indigenous officer around such a significant issue.

Community garden

I've been in continued contact with some students around the project for the revived community garden project. Some funding has been secured for them through the university and they’re to have a working bee to get the garden into shape on the 4th of July.

Multicultural Festival

I spent the Wednesday of the multicultural festival helping out on the FUSA stall.

The cultural performances consisted of singing, dancing, instrument playing and martial art from 18 countries (12 countries above; plus Ireland, Mexico, Saudi Arabia, India, East Timoer, and Bhutan). There were total 34 cultural performances presented by more than 180 performers, not only from international students in Flinders University, but also from other universities in Adelaide. There were also a number of international students who perform spontaneously on the festival’s day (out of the program schedule). The performances were all in voluntarily based. One of the festival’s MC is international student with disability (who was one of the SC’s member last year, Jack (accessibility officer)), which add value of inclusivity of the event. The fundraising act for Nepal, Flinders for Nepal, gained positive response and raised donation in total of 1,277.85 AUD. From the opening to closing ceremony, the engagement of international students were massive. A large group of international students involved in opening ceremony by playing Angklung (Indonesian traditional music instrument) spontaneously (without any prior practices). One international student composed a special song (on piano) dedicated for all the international students who involved on the festival, and performed it as the final performance to close of the festival. The audiences was not only came from Flinders community, but from other Uni in Adelaide. Some of them have stated their interest to make the same festival in their community. I would like to appreciate and say big thanks for all of your support for our festival; Chris, Adam, Rachel, Steph, Sarah, Paul, Fay and Stacy, James, and all of student council, thank you so much for working all out together to make this festival happened.

CASEWORK SUMMARY
Events report, Prepared by the Events & Projects Officer

I started at FUSA on April 27 and have been busy getting to know everyone and learning the ropes. Thanks to everyone for being so welcoming – I’ve had a great first few weeks and I’m really enjoying the role so far.

Multicultural Festival
The Multicultural Festival was held 13th-15th of May at Sturt. I assisted Adam (C&EO) in the planning and delivery of the event, in conjunction with Site and Nadira. My main focus was in the weeks leading up to the festival was working with Matt Lindner from WHS to complete the WHS requirements for the event – including a site induction for all stall holders and volunteers, event risk assessment and a last minute safe work procedure to set up marquees (as the provider was not a registered contractor). I worked with the C&EO on the logistics of the event – including a daily checklist for bump in and bump out and confirming details with contractors, student organisers and other staff involved in the festival. The C&EO and I worked with three student casuals on bump in on the afternoon/evening of May 12th, as well as the bump out on Friday 15th May. Overall the festival was a success – however more time for strategy and planning would have resulted in better delivery.

O’Week Semester 2

Planning is well underway for semester two O’Week. There is a myriad of tasks to complete, so this will be my main focus over the next couple of months, respectively.

So far I have met with the O’Week Student Director group on two occasions (fortnightly meetings), and we have made some excellent progress so far. Our directors are all contributing well and have come up with some wonderful ideas – I’m pleased that they have kept a focus on mature age and international students for semester two. O’Week will run from 10am – 3pm daily from Monday 27th – Wednesday 29th July. Daytime activities will include stalls, roving entertainment, free food (popcorn, fairy floss, donuts, bbq, etc) as well as performances and presentations each day. Pending approval from Buildings and Property, the stage will be located in the Flinders Laneway to minimise disruption to teaching. Afternoon/Evening events planned are: Monday – movie night, Tuesday: Comedy/Quiz Night and Wednesday: Jazz/wine/cheese/networking with staff and students in the Laneway. I also met with Emma Sachsse (past O’Week Director) last week who has also contributed some excellent ideas on a morning tea/space for mature age students.

Venues have been a major challenge so far – however I’m working closely with Humanities, Buildings and Properties and the good people at Flinders Living to provide some suitable spaces.

Other events & projects in planning stages

- Textbook Fair
- Exams Campaign
- National Band Comp (in collaboration with C&EO)
- NAIDOC Week (in collaboration with C&EO)
- FUSA Ball
- Semester Two Relax Days and Welfare breakfasts
- Outdoor Cinema (semester two)
- And many more to come – including O’Week 2016!

I invite Student Council members to come and say hello if we haven’t met properly yet. Please let me know if you’re planning any events or activities for later on in the year – I’d be happy to sit down with you to discuss further.
5.14. General Council Member reports

Ann Raith

This month I have volunteered at the Multi-Cultural Festival. I also spent time distributing and waiting while students completed the NUS Survey.

I have been advocating for bachelor degree students to have a specific time and place for help with assignments. There appears to be a gap between what the student resource centre offers and what students, for whom English is a second language, want and need. This includes looking into the Resource Centre’s new English Language Support Program.

This month I have also been assisting a student who has had family trauma and I am continuing to gather information in relation to the needs of mature age students on campus. Looking specifically with the University of New South Wales who employ a one full time staff member.

Jack Harrison

My hours for Last month are:

- 4 hours carried over from April
- 1.5 hours from FESA BBQ
- 1 hour for Ed Collective meeting
- 3 hours participating in various ET meetings

My hours for this student council meeting are:

- 0.5 hours carried over
- Ed Collective with NUS 3 hours
- NUS Quality Survey 3 hours (Spent talking to people and getting them to complete the form)
- 0.5 hours assisting Caleb with Nursing and Midwifery Association
- 3 hours spent with ET helping their mid year party

6. Matters for Decision

6.1. Counter-rally to the Reclaim Australia rally

Successive Australian governments have stoked racism in order to achieve their political ends – scapegoating refugees while attacking the conditions of workers and students. This has meant continued persecution of Aboriginal people, and locking refugees up in concentration camps on Nauru and Manus Island. This climate of racism has meant that racists are rallying on our streets, and fascists feel emboldened to rally, and to recruit. This April, rallies of racists and fascists took place around the country under the banner of “Reclaim Australia”. They reserve a special hatred for Muslims.

It is imperative that all anti-racists and anti-fascists unite to combat this threat, to mobilize and prevent Nazis from rallying and recruiting on our streets. The fascists have called more Reclaim Australia rallies to be held on the 18th of July, including one rally in Adelaide.

I move that: 1. Student Council endorse the counter-rally to Reclaim Australia.

2. Student Council are encouraged to attend the counter-rally at 10am, 19th July, Elder Park.

6.2. Rescue the Rohingya refugees

This month in the Straits of Malacca, around 8,000 Rohingya refugees and Bangladeshi migrants were stranded, lacking food, water and sanitation – and the governments of Thailand, Malaysia and Indonesia followed Australia’s lead – and towed the boats back into the ocean.

Abbott has flat-out refused to rescue and resettle these refugees – even though Australia is clearly the richest and largest nation in the region. This is a continuation of decades of racist government policy. If these refugees were whites on a cruise ship who needed rescuing, Australia would be there in a heartbeat. But seeing as they’re Muslim and poor, the government’s attitude is “nope, nope, nope”.

I move that the Student Council condemns the outrageous inaction on the part of the Australian government, and demands that the Rohingya refugees be rescued and resettled in Australia.

6.3. End of semester event for Indigenous Students

I move that the attached proposal for an end of semester Indigenous Student Movie and Pizza night be endorsed by Student Council.

6.4. Funding to attend Edcon for General Council member
I move that FUSA approves spending $480 on each General Council member who want to go to EdCon. That figure is based on $120 conference fee, $140 for accommodation and $200 for flights.

6.5. Rescheduling Gender Equality Week and Bluestockings Week events

I've put some serious thought and planning into Blue Stockings Week and Gender Equality Week in Semester 2. I believe that it would be better to have the events on separate weeks so that they each get the attention and priority they deserve.

I move that the event dates be changed so that BSW will be (as scheduled by NTEU) August 10-14, and to have GEW from October 12-16.

6.6. Clubs and Societies Regulations Changes

The proposed changes to these regulations are in the main to allow for the creation of rules around School Associations. Other components were also tidied up.

Motion: That Student Council approve the proposed changes to the Clubs and Societies Regulations.

6.7. Empire Times Regulation Changes

The proposed changes to these regulations reflect the change to FUSA Constitution and other components were also tidied up.

Motion: That Student Council approve the proposed changes to the Empire Times Regulations.

6.8. Tenure of Student Council

Background

At its meeting on March 3 2015, the Student Council discussed a proposal whereby the tenure of Student Council Representatives and the Empire Times Editorial Team is changed from the calendar year of 1 January – 31 December to a 12 month period of 1 December to 30 November. The reasons outlined for this proposal were the following:

Utilising the Momentum Created at the Induction Training

Student Council would have completed their Induction in the last week of November and will be able to use this momentum to get started with their projects and planning for the year ahead. This will limit the impact of the understandably quiet Christmas holiday period and allows for important planning ahead of Orientation Week.

Planning

Student Council would have the opportunity to meet in December to commence its strategic planning for the year ahead. The earlier start date will allow for more detailed planning and preparation of campaigns and other activities. The extra time will ensure that Student Council ‘hits the ground running’ at the beginning of the academic year. The change of tenure will also mean that representatives can begin their working relationship with FUSA staff earlier and therefore get assistance earlier with planned campaigns, O’Week and other activities.

Event Planning

The Social Activities Officer along with the Social Activities Sub-Committee can begin planning the event schedule and the events themselves in December. This means that the Social Activities Officer and FUSA staff would have more time to plan and prepare for the FUSA events, resulting in better events for all students. This will be especially useful for planning for O’Week and the events to be held in the first few weeks of the semester.

Empire Times (ET)

The last edition of ET is usually released in early November, meaning that the Editorial Team have then completed their work for the year. It therefore does not make sense for them to continue in their roles until December 31. If the new Editorial Team could begin on December 1 then they can begin the necessary training, mentoring and handover to allow them to begin preparing for the first edition, which is typically released on O’Week. I have received anecdotal information from previous and current ET Editors and the Media Officer that there is a lot of pressure on the ET Editorial Team (whom may have no experience in the creation of a magazine) to learn all they need to know and then create the first edition of the magazine, which deadline could be late January/early February.

2016 Planning

2016 will be a huge year for Flinders University and FUSA. It is the 50th year of the University and the new Hub and Plaza Redevelopment will be completed. FUSA will be moving into brand new premises with new opportunities to connect with students. This will require a lot of planning by Student Council with regards to how FUSA presents itself in the new year and what campaigns, events and activities it would like to run in O’Week and semester one.

Motion Passed

After discussion, Student Council passed the following motion: Student Council Endorses Option 1 of agenda item 6.5 to be submitted as the FUSA position at the FUSA AGM.

Option 1 was the following:

Option 1

The proposed change of tenure begins in 2015 so that for the 2016 Election of FUSA Student Council and Empire Times Editorial Team (being held in 2015) that the tenure be changed from 1 January, 2016 – 31 December, 2016 to 1 December, 2015 – 30 November, 2016.
Student Council

The current Student Council who were elected from 1 January 2015 – 31 December 2015 pass a motion to cease as FUSA Student Council as of 30 November 2015 (one month earlier than the period they were elected for) to allow for the incoming Student Council to govern FUSA from 1 December, 2015 – 30 November, 2016. Honoria will be honoured in full.

Empire Times

The Empire Times Editorial Team elected from 1 January 2015 – 31 December 2015 would remain as Editors until 31 December but would be engaged only in handover and training to the new Editorial Team who would begin their tenure on the 1 December, 2015 and go through until 30 November, 2016. Honoria will be honoured in full.

Constitution Change

This change required a change to the FUSA Constitution, which was the following:

14. Terms of office

14.1. Office-bearers of the Association, Student Council Officers and the ordinary members of the Student Council, elected at the annual elections hold office from 1 December to 30 November the following year.

This change was passed at the FUSA AGM on the 31st of March 2015 and then approved by University Council on the 14th of May 2015.

Motion: Student Council formally approve the following:

- the change of tenure begins in 2015 so that for the 2016 Election of FUSA Student Council and Empire Times Editorial Team (being held in 2015) that the tenure be changed from 1 January, 2016 – 31 December, 2016 to 1 December, 2015 – 30 November, 2016.
- the current Student Council who were elected from 1 January 2015 – 31 December 2015 will cease as FUSA Student Council as of 30 November 2015 (one month earlier than the period they were elected for) to allow for the incoming Student Council to govern FUSA from 1 December, 2015 – 30 November, 2016. Honoria will be honoured in full.

6.9. Returning Officer for the 2015 Annual Elections

As per clause 4.2 and in accordance with Section 4 of the Election Regulations, the Manager, Student Engagement has appointed Assoc. Prof Mary Heath to be the Returning Officer for the 2015 FUSA elections.

Assoc. Prof. Heath has worked with community organisations in relation to rape law reform, women's legal rights and public protest. She has also run training for community groups in consensus decision making and facilitation skills, nonviolence training and training for police liaison teams and legal observer teams for nonviolent protest.

She is the recipient of multiple teaching awards and she currently chairs the College of Distinguished Educators.

Motion: That Student Council approve the appointment of the Assoc. Prof Mary Heath to be the Returning Officer for the 2015 FUSA elections as per clause 4.2 of the Election Regulations.

6.10. Election Tribunal for the 2015 Annual Elections

As per clause 17.2 and in accordance with Section 17 of the Election Regulations the Manager, Student Engagement has appointed the following candidates to form the inaugural FUSA Election Tribunal.

At the previous student council meeting more time was requested to consider the candidates and to explore the possibility of a more diverse panel. It is worth noting that Dr Cassandra Starr (Social and Policy Studies) was originally going to be on the panel, but she pulled out due to study leave commitments. We have since approached a number of other individuals, primarily from Yunggorendi, but we are yet to identify a suitable or willing replacement for one of the appointees below. With the additional information, coupled with the appointment of Assoc. Prof. Mary Heath as the Returning Officer, the appointees for nomination remain unchanged for Student Council consideration.

Associate Professor Haydon Manning works within the School of Social and Policy Studies as a member of the discipline of Politics and Public Policy. He teaches a large first level class introducing students to Australian politics and government, and more specialist classes in electoral behaviour and environmental politics at upper level. In the June 2011 edition of Australian Book Review he published a major essay on the Miles Franklin Literary Award.

Motion: That Student Council approve the appointment of Assoc. Prof Haydon Manning, Dr Grant Niemann and Dr Patrick Allington to the inaugural Election Tribunal for the 2015 FUSA elections as per clause 17.2 of the Election Regulations.
